On January 25, 2019, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Mammoth Energy Services, Inc. (the “Company”), in accordance with the Company’s bylaws, appointed Arthur H. Amron as a member of the Board and its Compensation Committee, effective immediately. As provided in the Company’s bylaws, Mr. Amron will serve in these capacities until the next Annual Meeting of the Company’s Stockholders or until his earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. The Board determined that Mr. Amron qualifies as an independent director under The Nasdaq Global Select Market rules for purposes of serving on the Board and the Compensation Committee.

Mr. Amron is a Partner at Wexford Capital LP, an SEC-registered investment advisor (“Wexford Capital”), and serves as its General Counsel. Mr. Amron also actively participates in various private equity transactions and has served on the boards and creditors’ committees of a number of public and private companies. Mr. Amron also served on the board of directors of the general partner of Rhino Resource Partners LP (NYSE: RNO), a diversified energy limited partnership focused on coal and energy related assets and activities (“Rhino”), from January 2010 until the sale of Wexford Capital’s interest in Rhino to Royal Energy Resources, Inc. in March of 2016. In connection with Mr. Amron’s appointment to the Board, Mr. Amron is entitled to receive the cash compensation and equity awards generally given to the Company’s non-employee directors for their services on the Board and its committees as disclosed in the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 25, 2018, which description is incorporated herein by reference.
